

Professor Khin Yong Lam from Singapore visited SACLA/SPring-8

July 15, 2014

RIKEN SPring-8 Center (RSC) welcomed Prof. Khin Yong Lam of Nanyang Technological University (NTU) with members of A*STAR and Fujitsu, Ltd. He is involved in launching a Singapore national supercomputer system and visited a cutting-edge facility, SACLA and the supercomputer system, FX10.

Prof. Khin Yong Lam and visitors at the foyer of the SACLA Experimental Facility

Visitors:

Prof. Khin Yong Lam (center), Chief of Staff and Vice President of NTU

Prof. Tan Tin Wee, Chairman of A*STAR Computational Resource Centre

Dr. Kan Wei Seng, CIO of A*STAR Computational Resource Centre

Mr. Bernard Tan Kian Pheng, Deputy Director of Biomedical Sciences Institutes at A*STAR

After welcoming Prof. Lam and other visitors, Dr. Joti presented the overview of Supercomputer FX10. Dr. Yabashi introduced the overview of SACLA at the SACLA Experimental Facility.